

Any Dangerous Goods in Your Baggage ?

Portable Electronic Devices and Spare Batteries Must Be Carried In the Cabin

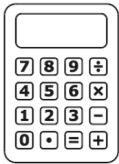

Lap Top Computers

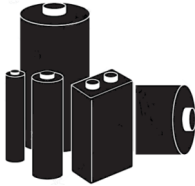

Digital Cameras

Cell Phones

Calculators

Alkaline Batteries

Li-ion

Lithium Ion Batteries

Prohibited Items Cannot be Carried Onboard or Checked In as Baggage

Flammable Liquids

Radioactive Products

Propane & Pressure Containers

Biohazards

Explosives & Fireworks

Infectious Materials

Corrosive or Chemical Products

Fire Extinguishers

Toxic Substances

Paints and Adhesives

Oxidisers & Bleach

Magnetized Materials

The following Items Are Restricted They Must Be Approved for Transport

Firearms

Ammunition
Bear Bangers

Aerosols
Bear Spray

Batteries

Scuba Tank

Alcohol

Dry Ice

Matches & Lighters

Gas Powered

Gas Powered Equipment

Radio Controlled Devices

Camp Stove

Self-Inflating Jacket

WARNING

Canadian and International Regulations require that passengers must declare dangerous goods in checked and carry-on baggage

IT IS A CRIMINAL OFFENCE TO SHIP or CARRY UNDECLARED OR MISDECLARED DANGEROUS GOODS.

Please ask your Agent for more details.

You must Agree to these conditions prior to checking in any baggage and boarding the aircraft. The boarding agent checking you in will ask you to confirm that you agree to the above.